Notes from Meeting #1987 – 11th February

Russell noted that special thanks was expressed from Heather Wheatley to Ernie for his continued support to Meals on Wheels for the past 35 years.

Jack Kelso updated the activities of RAWCS (Rotary Australia World Community Service). Rotarians Against Malaria report that East Timor is now malaria free, and Donations in Kind have been offered 3 containers of linen from Fortescue and 33 containers of equipment from the recently closed Calvary Wakefield Hospital.

Vocational visit to west Terrace Cemetery on the 31st March

Ken has questioned whether this proposed visit will be successful noting that it is from 9 to 10pm and will cost $25 each.

Mavericks, Madness and Murder Most Foul!
What was a young wife thinking as she searched for an axe with which to kill her husband? What drives the architect of a city to shack up with his maid? And how badly jilted must a man feel to kill his ex-fiancé with a fire poker, then dive into a well with a rope around his neck? All this and much more happened right here in Adelaide more than a century ago. Live the stories in amongst the headstones of West Terrace Cemetery in this enthralling Night

Described by the Cemetery as 'Full of history and surprises, it's an amazing and entertaining night out. Special light and surround sound effects combine with actors in period costume to bring to life stories full of achievement, humour, tragedy and intrigue. This is a whole new perspective on some of the colourful characters resting in this heritage listed cemetery'.

Can everyone please consider if they would attend this event and report back by our next meeting.
