Guest Speaker – Bill Walsh – Kangaroo Island & the ‘One and All’

Bill, who grew up on Kangaroo Island, described his time there from May to July where he was helping farmers to rebuild fences and generally help where he could. He commented on the independent nature of the older residents who resisted support. He showed several photos of the devastation caused by the fires and noted the recent greening of the island after months of blackness.

Bill is the Master of the tall sailing ship, the ‘One and All’ and he spoke enthusiastically about the benefits to young people who join their training programs.

Glasses get to Warakurna

As noted in the #2013 Bulletin, Angela has arranged to get some of our donated glasses to the community in Warakurna, which is about 350km west of Uluru in Western Australia. Jeanette Stansborough, a nurse in the community, has taken them up to give out because they have difficulty in accessing glasses. Here are a couple of happy wearers.
