Notes from Meeting #2140 – 11th of April

This week we had apologies from Jack Kelso, Jack Pappin, Mark Carter, and John Opio. We were delighted to be joined by District Governor Paul Thomas and his wife, Kathryn, Charter President Ernie Nagy and his wife Sue, Past DG Doug Layng and former Prospect Sunrise member, Pam Roberts.

Pam Roberts and Doug Layng were especially invited to join Ernie Nagy, Vic Isbester, Ron Rogers, and Brian Wheatley celebrate that they were all born in 1948 and turn 75 during 2023. Ron Rogers had organised a special event complete with a Birthday Party atmosphere.

Party! Party!

The '48ers' with DG Paul

Tradition is that the spouse or partner of the incumbent DG has a special project for fundraising and Kathryn Thomas spoke of her passion to support the Childhood Cancer Association based at the Women's and Children's Hospital as well as the Peter Nelson Leukaemia Research Foundation.

DG Paul then gave an update on the plans for the Rotary Convention including considering support for the 'One and All' sailing experiences both to and from Melbourne. He also encouraged involvement in the District 9510 Expo at Bonython Hall followed by the Celebration Dinner at the National Wine Centre, both on June 3.

Angela and Jeff presented the 'Peace Pole' that the club has purchased to be a part of a project marking a Centenary of Rotary in South Australia. This will be presented to and installed at Challa Gardens Primary School

During the night, Ron Rogers led the group in a Ballad for the '1948ers' and Les Dennis interviewed each of the '1948ers' based on photos that each had provided taken at various stages of their lives.

A celebratory cake and raffle helped top off a night of good fun with many thanks to Ron Rogers for his initiative and enthusiasm.

'Regency Park' In Action

Another busy week at for club members as despite reduced personnel due to people being away overseas, we were able to field teams to assist at dismantling a Playground at Walkley Heights, clear out some rubbish from senior club member's Dale (and Helen's) disused swimming pool and, at short notice, with the support of former members and friends, 'Gather Round' a team for Bunnings BBQ on Saturday!

Joining members of RC of Mt. Barker in The Rotary Overseas Relocated Playgrounds Project

Teamwork at Dale and Helen's .... a tea break always a reflection of the comradery we experience as part of the RC of Regency Park
