Notes from Meeting #2147 – 6th of June

This week we had apologies from Les, Ernie, Jack K & John O and were pleased to be joined by Ashley Lorraine and Arch Boonen & (guest speaker) Suren Krishnan, both from the Rotary Club of Prospect. Les was having a new knee put in at Ashford Hospital and it is a pleasure to report that he is now back home again.

Angela reported that all the profit made from the BBQ outside of Bonython Hall on the day of the District 9510 Expo and operated jointly by us and North York Peninsula will be donated to the Childhood Cancer Association. Jeff reported that the material for the next phase of work at Calperum has been ordered. Brian circulated the roster in Les's absence and Ron presented Dale with an appreciation poster from the Halifax Children's Pre-School for donations of recyclables.

Guest Speaker – Suren Krishnan – DREAMIN Foundation

Suren is a Co-Founder of this foundation set up in 2003 and is its current Chairman. DREAMIN is an acronym for the Dean Richards Endeavour to Assist the Medically Ill and Needy. It honours the memory of the late Dean Richards, a stalwart of The Rotary Club of Prospect and well-loved in Rotary and social circles for his charm and larrikin wit. The foundation began as a project of the Rotary Club of Prospect to provide international medical aid to our neighbouring developing nations in conjunction with Reconstructive Surgical Specialists from the Royal Adelaide Hospital. It continues to work with ROMAC and many other worthy organisations in Australia and neighbouring regions.

Medical Solutions that make Dreams Happen

The DREAMIN Foundation funds the best medical and surgical practices for underprivileged children in Australia and around the world.
