Notes from Meeting #2148 – 13th of June

This week we had apologies from Les, Ernie, Jack K & John O.

In Les's absence, Brian circulated the roster which mainly focussed on our catering for today's PAE tree planting function. Mark S advised that there will be a ceremony at the Challa Gardens Primary School assembly at 9am on Wednesday the 28th of June regarding the Peace Pole that we have donated to them.

Jeff reported that our Rotary Zone 8 has decided to make the NO to DOMESTIC VIOLENCE campaign initiated by the Ballina Club in NSW a Zone wide effort. He showed a film of an interview of their club president about the club's efforts in education and public awareness of this campaign.

Here is an extract from their website.

Rotary says NO to Domestic Violence

Ballina-on-Richmond Rotary is committed to decreasing the incidence of Domestic Violence and Family Abuse, increasing Respectful Relationships of all people in our community, enhancing Wellbeing and Mental Health and Keeping them Safe through the project 'Ballina Rotary says NO to Domestic Violence'.

Our club started the DV campaign in 2018 to raise awareness, implement educational programs and Support Families escaping Domestic and Family Violence. We organise a Walk against Domestic Violence in Ballina each year

Canteen Creek Literacy Project

At 4pm on Tuesday we held a Zoom meeting with Natalie Law, the Principal at the Canteen Creek School in the Northern Territory. This is the school we originally sent the Trachoma kits to and have more recently, in conjunction with the Walkerville club, donated $3,000 worth of books to assist them in their community literacy project. This work was 50% supported by a District 9510 Grant.

Here is a screen shot showing Ron modelling one of beanies we will soon be sending to them together with several soccer balls.

PAE Tree Planting at Enfield today

This morning we used our BBQ trailer and gazebo to provide a sausage sizzle and burgers for the PAE Tree Planting at the reserve on Park Terrace, Enfield. We had a busy time and managed to use all the food items we arrived with. A worthwhile day.
