Notes from Meeting #2198 – 11th of June.

This week our club meeting with President Vic Isbester in charge.

Quote from Paul Harris and his book Honouring Our Past – Words and Wisdom.

Happiness is one of the attributes of man which eludes the most determined search, and comes – if it does – unsought, and in the most unsuspected places. He who has failed in his efforts to find happiness in a palace may find it in a humble cottage where love reigns.

Message to Rotarians at the Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, Fourth Goodwill Conference.

Special visitors tonight were David Green (3 week) – welcome.

Treasurer Russell Green suggested we look at allowing a small % of fundraising to subsidise members fees as being involved in a club is very good for our mental health. The district also approves using fundraising to pay for Rotary Insurance component. After some discussion it was agreed to pass it to next week's board meeting for final approval and type of program.

President Vic gave a quick overview of the year and acknowledge numerous members for their efforts.
