Last week, we had the pleasure of the company of Tim Mee, District International Service Chair (2022-25) and District Governor Nominee (2024-25). He posed the question, “Why is Rotary International Service & The Rotary Foundation good for your club's health?”

He introduced us to some of the work that RAWCS (Rotary Australia World Community Service) does. Founded in 1966, RAWCS delivers Rotary’s humanitarian, development, and disaster relief projects both in Australia and internationally. It was noted that Regency Park Rotary Club has consistently contributed to the Rotary Foundation and has seen the benefit of matching grants for a number of projects.

He gave us information of a project in war-torn Ukraine that has grown from distributing emergency ration packs to helping rebuild schools. It really is a valuable resource to assist clubs.

Regular “walk and talk meetings” are back. We meet outside the Caledonian Hotels on Friday mornings at 7.45am and take a casual stroll around North Adelaide before cake and coffee at Pellegrini’s. No bookings required, just turn up with a sunny disposition, wearing comfortable shoes.

Last week, Sophia, manager of the Junction Community Centre hosted representatives of Regency Park Rotary at a luncheon presented by the Governor of South Australia, to recognise the work that volunteers do in the community. We were represented by Pres Brian, PP Les, Rtms Mark Carter and our newest member, Hadi Jafari.

The Queen Victoria Auxiliary

Romantic Comedy Film Night

'Bridget Jones - Mad about the Boy'

starring Renee Zellweger & Hugh Grant

The beloved Bridget Jones, now in her 50s and widowed as of four years ago re-enters the dating scene. The modern dating scene is an absolute nightmare of apps, and hook-ups, but lo, here comes the much younger Roxster to put a spring in Bridget's middle-aged step, along with the return of the third corner in the Jones-Darcy love triangle, Daniel Cleaver.
